

Contents

Editor's Note	...2
Russell Solomon, Rights and the post-Brexit agenda: rights protection and institutional inadequacy in the United Kingdom Green Deal	...3
Nellie Munin and Ofer Sitbon, Between Normative Power and Soft Power: the Psagot case	...18
Julian Grimm, Building an EU identity: Policy development at the EU-level – An overview of the current state	34
Pablo Cristóbal Jiménez Lobeira, Europe United in Diversity—An Analogical Hermeneutics Perspective	...45
Alexandra Dunwill, European, national or global? Elite schools in post-communist Poland	...59
Alexandra Ludewig, Westlessness? Challenges for the EU's Soft Power Approach	...73
Binoy Kampmark, COVID Meets Volvo: The Swedish Public Health Approach to Coronavirus	...85
ESAAZ ESSAY PRIZE WINNERS 2020
Oscar Eggleton, The Great Game of the twenty-first century: Can Europe compete?	...99
George Cadillac, The appearance of bias in international investment arbitrators and analysis of potential impediments to bias in the European Union's proposal for a multilateral investment court	...107
Sareth Kailas Kumaresan, Evaluating the EU as a Global Leader in International Development	...114
Notes on Contributors	...121