

Contents

Callum J. Innes, J. Michael Inners, and Ben W. Morrison, Social representation of the profession of psychology and the application of artificial intelligence: European Union regulatory authority and the application of psychology as a paradigm for the future	...2
Ludovica Marchi, Power in practice: EU Member States' 2020 early negotiations on Covid-19 burden sharing	...18
Agata Wierzbowska , European banking sector and bank lending amid COVID-19	...31
Zane Šime, Earth system governance and science diplomacy: Commonalities of emerging shapers of institutions	...49
ESAAANZ ESSAY PRIZE WINNERS 2021
Will Domvo, The policies and processes surrounding recognition of prior learning for refugees in European higher education systems	...68
Abigail Johnson, Economic exclusion: Should the EU refuse trade deals in the interest of climate change?	...79
Jessica Quirk, Has neoliberal globalisation contributed to growing levels of nationalism across Europe?	...87
Mardi Sutherland, Obligations of the secondary witness to testimonies of historical trauma in European literature	...94
Charlotte Walker, The impact of Estonia's established relations with the EU on the success of its post-communist transition	...102
Notes on Contributors	...111