The Australian Association for the Study of Religions is a professional organization with a membership of more than 350, made up of teachers, academics, students and others with knowledge and experience of religious traditions.

Many members also hold membership in other societies representing specific disciplines and cross-disciplinary fields. The AASR aims to function as a meeting place where the study of religion in its broadest dimensions may be fostered. It owes a considerable debt of gratitude to the Charles Strong Trust for financial support.

Membership confers participation in the AASR program which includes:

- Annual Conferences
- Access to AASR Publications (books and monographs)
- A.R.S. Review (articles, book reviews, news and notes on personnel, publications, seminars, conferences, course offerings, school and tertiary curricula).
- AASR Women and Religion Caucus
- Affiliation with the International Association for the History of Religions (IAHR)
- Strong ties with institutions in Melanesia and New Zealand.

Membership subscriptions should be sent to:
