

EDITORIAL

1997 has been another fallow year for the Arts Association. The President and Secretary have been occupied with other matters and there has been little interest or support within the Faculty. No inaugurals have been offered. In 1998, things may change and improve. Under a new Dean, a committee chaired by Professor Terry Smith is to look at a range of concerns which include the relationship between Faculty, the Association, and Arts. We have suggested several moves to put the relationship on a firmer basis. It is expected that a general meeting of the Association will be held early in the year.

G.L.L.