JASAL

Journal of the Association for the Study of Australian Literature

Volume 8 (2008)

Edited by
Susan Lever, Tanya Dalziell and Paul Genoni

JASAL is a peer-reviewed journal published online from the website of the National Library of Australia at http://www.nla.gov.au/openpublish/index.php/jasal and sent in hard copy to members of the Association for the Study of Australian Literature and institutional subscribers. Membership and subscription information is at http://asaliterature.com

JASAL is published in a numbered issue once annually, with an additional Special Issue each year. The editors welcome submissions that consider Australian literature in all its forms and in terms of its socio-political and cultural contexts. We encourage comparative studies with other literatures and are particularly interested in contributions that challenge received critical paradigms and contribute to public debate. Contributors should submit work to the editors online from the JASAL website—guidelines are on the website. Submissions are considered at any time of the year.
