

Acknowledgments

There are many people to thank for bringing the fear+hope exhibition to fruition and for making this monograph possible. Omid Tofighian, Safdar Ahmed, Anton Pulvirenti, Bilquis Ghani and Lisa Worthington made regular visits to the Villawood Immigration Detention Centre. There we gave art classes, shared meals, discussed our lives and built friendships with detained asylum seekers. In particular, we are grateful to former detainees within the community who gave us works related to their detention experience, and who shared in the planning of this project. The contributions of Saad Tlaa, Tahmineh Jafari and Syed Rohullah Musavi were particularly valuable. Special mention must also be made of the children who, with the help of their families, enthusiastically took up our offer of art lessons. They include Seena Akhlaqi Sheikhdost, Shirin Aaram, Keyvan Abdolahi Mehr, Heliya Khorshidi, Amir Farzan Hendi and Asrin Hendi. This could not have been possible without Danielle Sophia Raffaele, who conducted art classes for the children who had been in detention.

Vanessa Marks has been invaluable as our communications manager and promotions designer, and we are indebted to Stephen Mori for generously allowing us to use his exhibition space at relatively short notice, and for no other reason than that he sympathises with the objectives of our project. This book would not have appeared in present form if not for Libby Blainey and Noor Valibhoy's wonderful design and layout. Moreover, Naysan Tofighian, George Newhouse, Christopher Hartney, Alex Norman, Carole Cusack, Ali Salamati, Nazanin Najafi, Reza Taheri, Setayesh Nooraninejad, Shafagh Helalat, Stephanie Simcox, Zaheda Ghani, Qais Wadan, Brook Silcox, Nijmeh Hajjar, Ahmad Shboul, Geoff Turner, George Georgiadis, Mathubashini Ragupathy, Brahmi Jeganathan, Jake Lynch, Rod Patenden, Tess Shanon, Annarose Robinson, Lexi Andrews, Rachel Evans and Ian Morris, have all given valuable support, contributions and advice at various stages in the project. We were also assisted by a number of refugee advocates in Melbourne, including Asal Akhavan, Mahkam Ahmadi, Francis Evans and the RISE (Refugees, Survivors and Ex-Detainees) collective.

And lastly, we thank the artists for whom this exhibition and catalogue are produced, and who according to the skewed reasoning of our government are unable to attend the fear+hope exhibition and share in the public's response to it. This project and book/catalogue are dedicated to all of the displaced people, asylum seekers and refugees who suffer under Australia's detention system. We hope it encapsulates something of their courage, dignity and tenacity of spirit.

About the Journal

The publication of Literature and Aesthetics has been made possible by the generosity of the Chancellor's Committee of the University of Sydney. Established in 1977 on the initiative of the late Sir Hermann Black, the Chancellor's Committee comprises a group of volunteer workers raising money for projects of university-wide significance. Grants totalling $1m have been made for a variety of projects including Library art collections and rare book conservations, scholarships, furniture and furnishings for various buildings, equipment, and other minor projects. As far as we know, Literature and Aesthetics is the first University-based journal to receive the support of the Chancellor's Committee. The Sydney Society of Literature and Aesthetics wishes to express its sincere gratitude for such unique and encouraging support. Visit the Chancellor's Committee website at: www.usyd.edu.au/ccs/

It is journal policy to include papers in philosophical aesthetics on any of the arts, papers in literature and literary theory, and 'Hand On' work in the form of short poems, stories, essays, and black and white art. Literature and Aesthetics is a blind refereed journal and all contributions to the journal are refereed.

Contributions must be submitted in electronic form via the email address below. All submissions should be double-spaced and should adopt the format of the current issue. In general, footnotes are used for reference only. Preference is given to articles under 8000 words (including quotations).
