About the Journal

It is journal policy to include papers in philosophical aesthetics on any of the arts, papers in literature and literary theory, and 'Hands On' work in the form of short poems, stories, essays, and black and white art. Literature and Aesthetics is a blind refereed journal and all contributions to the journal are refereed.

I would like to express my special thanks to all the referees for their prompt and informed responses, to Catherine Runcie and Patrice Christie for help with proofing, and to Rowanne Couch for her advice on formatting and layout and her editorial assistance with this volume.

Will Christie

The Sydney Society of Literature and Aesthetics would like to express its gratitude to the Chancellor's Committee of the University of Sydney for its generous support and to the University itself for the award of a Sesquicentenary Grant to enable the continued publication of this journal.

Contributions must be submitted in both electronic (e-mail or disk) and double-spaced, hard copy versions. The format is that of the current issue. In general, endnotes are used for reference only. Preference is given to articles of under 5000 words (including quotations).

Books for review should be sent to Mr David Brooks, Department of English A20, University of Sydney, NSW 2006, Australia.

Editorial enquiries to Dr William Christie, Department of English A20, University of Sydney, NSW 2006 Australia.

Fax: (02) 9351 2434. E-mail: william.christie@english.usyd.edu.au

All material appearing in Literature and Aesthetics is copyright and permission to reproduce by any means must be sought from the editor.

A subscription form will be found at the end of this journal.
