ABOUT THE JOURNAL

Literature and Aesthetics is the journal of the Sydney Society of Literature and Aesthetics, founded in 1990 at the University of Sydney. The Society holds regular conferences and seminars based at the University of Sydney but open to all local scholars and interested members of the public.

Literature and Aesthetics has been made possible through the generosity of the Chancellor's Committee of the University of Sydney. Established in 1977 on the initiative of the late Sir Hermann Black, the Chancellor's Committee comprises a group of voluntary workers raising money for projects of university-wide significance. Grants totalling $1m have been made for a wide variety of projects including Library art collections and rare books conservation, scholarships, furniture and furnishings for various buildings, equipment, and other minor projects. As far as we know, Literature and Aesthetics is the first University-based journal to receive the support of the Chancellor's Committee. The Sydney Society of Literature and Aesthetics wishes to express its sincere gratitude for such unique and encouraging support. Visit the Chancellor's Committee website at: www.usyd.edu.au/su/ccs/

TO CONTRIBUTE TO THE JOURNAL

Literature and Aesthetics is a blind refereed journal and all contributions to the journal are refereed. It is journal policy to include papers in philosophical aesthetics on any of the arts, papers in literature and literary theory, and 'Hands On' work in the form of short poems, stories, essays, and black and white art. Preference is given to articles of under 5000 words (including quotations).

Contributions must be submitted electronically by e-mail or on disk. Articles should be formatted simply (no style sheets) in a 12pt Times font, 1.5 spaced lines and margins at least 2.54cm. Some style guidelines are provided on the SSLA website, or see current issue.

All material appearing in Literature and Aesthetics is copyright and permission to reproduce by any means must be sought from the editor. Editorial enquiries and books for review should be sent to:
