

DiSASTERS

image and context

DiSASTERS

image and context

Peter Hinton editor

SYDNEY
STUDIES

Society & Culture

Published by Sydney Association for Studies in Society and Culture (SASSC)

Distributed by

Sydney Studies
PO Box 575
Leichhardt
Sydney, NSW, 2040
(02) 569 1452

This book may be ordered direct from Sydney Studies,
but try your bookshop first

Sydney Studies is an imprint for short print-run scholarly books published on a non-profit basis by research and professional associations as a series of monographs

Disasters: Image and Context is number 7 in the sub series, Sydney Studies - Society and Culture

Copyright 1992 in each work remains with the authors
Copyright 1992 in the compilation rests with SASSC

This book is copyright. Apart from any fair dealing for the purposes of private study, research, criticism or review, as permitted under the Copyright Act, no part of this book may in any form be reproduced by any process (electronic, mechanical, microcopying, photocopying, recording or otherwise) without prior written permission. Inquiries should be addressed to the publishers or distributors

National Library of Australia Cataloguing-in-Publication entry:

Disasters : image and context

Includes bibliographical references
ISBN 0 949405 05 1
ISSN 0192 6402

1. Disasters. 2. Disasters - Social aspects. 3. Disasters in the press. 4. Disasters - Case studies. I. Hinton, Peter, 1939- . II. Sydney Association for Studies in Society and Culture. (Series : Sydney Studies in society and culture ; no. 7)

303.485

MANUFACTURED WHOLLY WITHIN AUSTRALIA

Contents

1	Introduction	Peter Hinton	1
2	The Mount Kembla Mine Disaster, 1902: Quarrying the Seams of Evidence to Assay the Human Response	Stuart Piggin	11
3	"Bushfires Unite; Floods Divide": The Cultural Context of Disasters	Susan Baggett	27
4	Shipwrecks: Images and Perceptions of Nineteenth Century Maritime Disasters	Mark Staniforth	45
5	The Newcastle Earthquake Experience: The Human Context and its Implications for Disaster Management	R.V. Anderson &amp; M.M. Cotton	65
6	Constructing Meaning in an Epidemic Interpretations of a Diagnosis of HIV Infection and AIDS	Robert Ariss	77
7	The Yamano Disaster	Matthew Allen	91
8	Disaster and Disaster-response in a Mediaeval Context: the First Crusade	J.O. Ward	105
9	Visions of Disaster in the Central Middle Ages	Lola Sharon Davidson	141
10	Coping with Disaster: Florence after The Black Death	James Hatty	153
11	Daniel Defoe's "A Journal of the Plague Year"	David Brooks	167
12	Afterword	S.N. Mukherjee	187
	Notes on Contributors		197

Notes on Contributors

- Matthew Allen* Lecturer, Department of Economic History,
University of Sydney
- R. V. Anderson* Disaster Counselling Service,
Hamilton, Newcastle
- Robert Ariss* Graduate Student, Department of Anthropology,
University of Sydney
- Susan Baggett* Independent Scholar (Formerly of Department of Anthropology, University of Adelaide)
- David Brooks* Lecturer, Department of English,
University of Sydney
- M. M. Cotton* Department of Psychology,
University of Newcastle
- Lola Sharon Davidson* Tutor, Department of History,
University of Sydney
- James Hatty* Graduate Student, Department of Italian,
University of Sydney
- Peter Hinton* Senior Lecturer, Department of Anthropology,
University of Sydney
- S.N. Mukherjee* Associate Professor, Department of History,
University of Sydney
- Stuart Piggin* Master, Robert Menzies College,
Macquarie University
- Mark Staniforth* Curator, Australian Maritime Museum,
Darling Harbour, Sydney
- J. O. Ward* Senior Lecturer, Department of History,
University of Sydney