

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS.

THE retiring President, MR. S. H. BARRACLOUGH, B.E., M.M.E., Assoc. M. Inst. C.E., did not deliver the customary Presidential Address at the Annual General Meeting, which, after transacting the usual formal business, merged into a conversazione; but at the Ordinary General Meeting of July 30th, he delivered, in lieu of the Presidential Address, a lantern lecture on "Three Typical National Industries:—(1) Krupp's Steel Works at Essen, (2) The Carborundum Works at Niagara and (3) Parson's Steam Turbine Works at Newcastle.
