

Sydney University Engineering Society.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS

To Constitution as passed at the Ordinary General Meeting, held on 8th November, 1905, and confirmed 13th December, 1905.

FORMATION OF BRANCH.

1. A Local Branch may be established on the authority of the Council on the receipt of a requisition signed by not less than ten (10) financial members of the Society, who are desirous of forming themselves into a Branch not less than 100 miles from Sydney, or from a previously formed Branch of the Society. Such requisition must state the names of those proposed as Officers of the Branch (as hereinafter provided) for the first year.

MEMBERSHIP.

2. Members of Local Branches must have been elected by the Society in the usual manner, and any member of the Society shall be entitled to the privileges of membership of any Branch on payment of the Branch Annual Subscription.

SUBSCRIPTION.

3. The Secretary of a Branch shall forward to the Society the sum of eight shillings and sixpence (8s. 6d.) per annum, or such other amount as may from time to time be determined by the Society, for each member of the Branch as shown by the Branch Annual Report.

REPORT TO BE SUBMITTED TO COUNCIL.

4. The Branch Secretary shall forward to the Council by the first day of March in each year a properly certified copy of the Branch Annual Report, and an audited Balance Sheet. The Report shall clearly set forth the names of members, the number of meetings, and the names of members attending.

NON-LIABILITY OF SOCIETY.

5. The Society shall not be liable for any expenditure incurred by the Branch.

POWER TO FRAME RULES AND BY-LAWS.

6. The General Meeting of the Local Branch shall have the power to frame by-laws and rules to govern the meetings, and covering matters which do not affect the Constitution of the Society, or the relationship of the Branch thereto, such rules and by-laws to be approved by the Council before coming into force.

OFFICERS.

7. The Officers of a Branch shall consist of a Chairman and Secretary, and such other officers as thought necessary, who shall be elected by the members of the Branch at its Annual General Meeting.

PAPERS.

8. Papers read before a Local Branch shall be the property of the Branch, and may be forwarded with a copy of the discussion to the Secretary; and may again, at the discretion of the Council, be read before a General Meeting of the Society and printed in the Journal.

9. If printed, galley slips of Papers read before the Society shall be forwarded to the Branch Secretary for distribution, reading, and discussion at the Branch meetings.

