LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

are welcomed. Here's a comment on SCANSION 32 from that country fan Royce Williams, who says in part, "...Well, well, I received your vile, mean, despicable and enjoyable --ah-- SCANSION, oh yes, even read it. What,..... ...yes again. The same remarks go for that odious exponent of J.Joggerel, Michael Baldwin the Finn (may he be smitten of a...) (may you all become uninsured to ......)(may you have to edit FFS reports I939-I955 incl) (and worse) ......I read TRUTH because of it's fine coverage of lust-and-sex......The other day I shot a butcher bird, thinking it was a hawk. Fancy a butcher bird thinking it was a hawk...Incidentally, ......R.Douglas didn't like it; he probably burnt it, I bet he burnt it. Imagine the nerve of that Nicholson, burning......Mother is well, how is Aunt Alice. Bill has returned to Irma, Little Willie was christened last Wednesday...that's all the news hope this leaves you as it leaves me. Damn that tsetse fly !
Thursday dawns (just). Have to cut this stencil and make a bus in 20 minutes.

Advance apologies for typeos. The dead lion is sacred. Glad SCANSIONS not daily.

MOLESWORTHS NEW FANMAG FOLDS
AFTER 12 DAILY ISSUES: The Monster must be fed, Or so said the headlineon PRINT No.11. We read this excellent piece of prose and discovered that prominent of the opposition FSS Vol Molesworth was editor of PRINT, free daily paper of the recent Printing Exhibition held in Wynyard concourse over the last fortnight in October. What an exhibition.
Did you see it? I hope you did.
What a spectacle, what a place to loose a frustrated fanzine editor Flatbeds, proof pulling presses, rotarys, typesetters, everything,
even a silk screen.

SCIENCE FICTION FANS AT THE ARTISTS BALL. They were there last Friday and enjoyed this ceremony to no end! Although there was no organised sf party as last year, numerous fans drifted about in togas and the like.

-- Does a toga drift like a canoe?
-- FUTURIAN SAEMAT: Does the FSS still hold it's library Sunday?
Does the Albion Futurian Socy still meet second Sundays?
Your guess.

There is no truth in the rumour that Sydney fans will soon publish a fanzine.

Harry Brook is in Sydney after 21 years abroad, last months in 15 countries. He was along last Thur., says he may stay

Do any of you fan collectors have spare copies of SCANSION 12, 16, 27a, 27b, or 29? If so write to me, maybe we can swap.

ARE YOU COMING? to Canberra, next Easter. Melbourne and Sydney fans are definitely going.
Canberra fans are already there?
Maybe other interstate fans?

When we revived SCANSION a month ago, we were all asking
"What killed Sydney fandom?"
"Twa'mn't dead at all. OK. So it aint growing, but, it sure is going. Faster and faster. Ah the animation of it. Come and see.

Come in. Have a glass. The water's fine. Or. You too can do a SCANSION. The original ambition of this rag was to have a new or at least a different editor every week.

AND HE FELL AMONG TELEPATHS
The other day, searching thefar toest corner, I came upon a herd of loose second TELEPATHS. Would you like one? They are quite house-broken and de-sexed, I mean censored. Just send a 3d stamp to cover postage and a TELEPATH will arrive by return post. OK.

What's a TELEPATH? You guessed
Who ever heard of a 3d stamp?

you knew, TELEPATH No.2 dated Oct 1954, hkt0,8vo,16pp published by Sydney fan Arthur Haddon.
It contains articles; "Random Notes on Merrit & Lovecraft" by T.G.L. Cockroft, "Renaissance in Comic book sf "by Roger Dard.
"SF Between 2 Eras" by Donald H.
Tuck, an article on Queensland fandom by Bill Veney and one on the Thursday night Sydney group by P. Burke. Although a year old Telepath makes good reading.
Get one, while they last.----
Oh, how the ghost of you clangs.
